What is the Alefta Event?

“The Alefta International Event (The Alphabet of Transformation (transmogrification) in Education) provides a platform for creating inspiring educational narratives, modeling exemplary experiences, and fostering interaction and synergy among teachers, school administrators, and educational activists from the Islamic world. It aims to establish a discourse for transformation and a collective movement among teachers for school reform.”

Approaches of the Alefta Event

1

Creating a platform for participation, interaction, and synergy, and forming a network of top teachers and schools from Muslim countries to establish a discourse for fundamental transformation in the education system.

2

Facilitating the structured narration of transformative educational, pedagogical, managerial, and school experiences that are inspiring and hopeful for the general audience.

3

Documenting, sharing, and creating a repository of transformative educational, pedagogical, and managerial experiences for teachers and education activists.

4

Differentiating between "educational innovation" and "discourse-making for fundamental transformation."
